Dear Vendor, Thank you for your support in the Whole Foods promotion detailed above. The above amount has been deducted from your account with United Natural Foods, Inc.

The term "ad fee" is short for "administrative fee" and is divided equally among the WFM stores. This fee pays for labor and supplies to load the pricing in the system, print & hang sale tags in the stores.

For questions regarding this deduction, send an email to SupplierDeductionDisputeMgmt@unfi.com. Please include your remit number and check number in the subject line for faster processing. Your remit number can be found on your check.

COOP	Marketing Co-op Program

Q: I distribute through UNFI. How will we pay for our invoices?

A: If your balance through UNFI is high enough to support invoice deduction, we will process all invoices through UNFI.

Q: I distribute through UNFI. Can I request direct billing?

A: No, if your business volume supports deductions through UNFI, our process is to submit all invoices for UNFI deduction. Please refer to your promotions agreement for additional details.

Q: I distribute through UNFI as well as other methods of distribution. How will I be billed?

A: all billing, regardless of distribution will be consolidated into one invoice and either deducted through UNFI or billed direct (depending on how much is distributed through each channel). For questions on this, please contact WFMCollections@wholefoods.com.

Q: What time frame is used for promotions billing?

A: The Scanback promo period starts 2 days before the event date and ends 5 days after for all Grocery and WB events. All other teams and programs are the first day of the event period and last day of the event period.

Q: What happens if the event period spans multiple months?

A: You will receive an invoice covering the days within each one for the event. For example, if your event is from 6/26 through 7/4, you will receive an invoice for June for all days in June through 6/30 and an invoice for July cover all days in July.

Q: What happens if UNFI is unable to process an invoice deduction?

A: If an invoice is returned to us as “Unable to Deduct”, we will resubmit 2 more times. If this is still unsuccessful, we will reach out to you to request payment via check.

Q: What are acceptable forms of payment?

A: At this time, we can accept payment via check or deductions through UNFI. We are unable to accept electronic forms of payment. If we have a direct payment relationship with your company, we can accept credit memos but your payables balance needs to exceed the amount of the credit memo at the time of submission.

Q: What happens if we are unable to pay our invoice(s)?

A: Please reach out to your category manager or WFM Merch Finance team (WFMCollections@wholefoods.com) to discuss next steps.

Q: What happens if we do not pay our invoice(s)?

A: If your account is not current and aged over 90 days, we will review your account with your category merchant and leadership. Future participation in promotional programs may be at risk and may be subject to cancellation until account balances are resolved.

Q: How do I report/ dispute an amount billed to me? What is I still have questions not answered by this document?

A: Please email billinginquiries@wholefoods.com

Q: When should I report a dispute?

A: Disputes should be reported within the dispute window outlined within your promotions agreement. This is typically 30 days from receiving your invoice. Any dispute reported outside the window may not be honored. For additional questions, please email billinginquiries@wholefoods.com.
